Uncirculated Coin Set

KENNEDY HALF DOLLAR FIRST ISSUED

With this offering, the United States Mint observes the thirty year milestone of a relative newcomer -- the Kennedy Half Dollar, created as a tribute to the 35th President, assassinated in 1963. The Nation marked the tragedy by introducing a new coin with John F. Kennedy's likeness early the next year. It was designed by Gilroy Roberts, Chief Engraver of the Mint at the time.

200th ANNIVERSARY FOR THE HALF DOLLAR COIN!

In 1794, the United States Mint produced the first half-dollar coin for use by the infant Nation. It featured a "flowing hair" Liberty, the same classic design used on the dollar coin and half-dime at the time. In 1964, the United States Mint produced the first Kennedy Half Dollar. This year -- 1994 -- is the 200th anniversary of the first half-dollar coin.

To complete your collection, order the 1994 Uncirculated Set with distinguishing Philadelphia and Denver mint marks. These coins meet the U.S. Mint standards so admired and respected for the past two hundred years by collectors.

*United States Mint
coins are still the best
-- for you or for someone who wants to begin a collection.*

These traditional Uncirculated Sets contain two each of the Lincoln Cent, Jefferson Nickel, Roosevelt Dime, Washington Quarter, and the Kennedy Half Dollar in addition to mint mark pieces from the Philadelphia and Denver Mints.

The U.S. Mint maintains its reputation for the best by packaging Uncirculated Coin Sets in Mylar® for protection from scratches and dust. Coins arrive in a beautiful satin-like finish to remain "a thing of beauty..." for years to come.

The heroic faces on our coinage remind all who see them of our Nation's proud and honored heritage of freedom -- of its freely elected Presidents. These treasured historic mementos are unforgettable links to our past.

This is the perfect gift coin set for both the new and avid collector. The Uncirculated Set can be conveniently ordered with the enclosed order form.
